Also she had a fortune of $100,000 in her own name. Both Rems appeared mere after-thoughts.

Acted Like Missourian.

There was one individual down in Texas who didn't have much faith in humanity So when he took a chance on the widow and got the $5 gag he at once put the post-office people on the trail. They went to the address and found there the "Beaucaire Matrimonial Agency." They raided it. The manager-in-chief was a tall and imposing person who, on his arrest, promptly gave ball. Then, of much experience, he left town, They have been looking for him ever since.

Last year an enterprising and glb young man started a "National Press Nows Association" in Jersey City. He claimed there was all Emids of money to be made if the people would turn byokinskers. Nobody was going to lose any more money on the races. It took the postal men about a month to close up this little game, but not before its manager had separated many Jerseynes from their rolls. The manager skipped.

"You Win," He Said.

CHORUS GIRL CONFESSES.

Herr Couried and Others Interested in Elsie Braun's Case. Elsie Braun, the pretty Irving Place Theatre chorus girl who while em-ployed by Mrs. J. Hood Wright as a maid stole $2.000 worth of jewelry, was arraigned before Judge Cowing in the Court of General Sessions to-day on an indictment charging grand larceny in the second degree. Through her counsel she entered a plea of guilty, and was remanded for sentence.

Herr Conreld, of the Irving Place
Theatre, and other influential persons have interested themselves in the girl, who says that she stole because she could not resist the temptation to possess pretty things. Mrs. Wright has no desire that she be severely punished, and she will probably be sent to some institution.
